Hendricks County – The Hendricks County Community Foundation celebrated with its scholarship fund donors and scholarship recipients at its annual Scholarship Banquet held at The Gazebo at Prestwick Country Club on Tuesday, May 20. Over 120 people gathered to recognize the students from Hendricks County who have been awarded scholarships from 37 scholarship funds held at the Community Foundation. The scholarships totaled $87,700.

Avon resident Alice McColgin, community relations administrator for Indianapolis Power and Light Company and serves on the Hendricks County Community Foundation Board of Directors, served as the keynote speaker. She encouraged the students, families and donors to continue to give their time, talents and treasures where they live.

McColgin shared, “I am delighted to be here this evening celebrating the past and the future of Hendricks County citizens with all of you. To my friends and neighbors thank you, for giving where you live through the Hendricks County Community Foundation. To the families of our students, I encourage you to continue providing roots and support for these young adults. It is my hope you and your children will be inspired to become a part of continuing this tradition of giving into a future we cannot see. And to our young scholars, we offer you our hope for a world full of possibilities to live long...productive...and generous lives.”

The Hendricks County Community Foundation manages an $8 million collection of funds that are created by individuals, families and organizations for charitable purposes including giving scholarships to local students. For more information, contact Susan Rozzi at 718-1200.
