Giving Back in Gratitude

Chris and Susan Rozzi

Chris and Susan Rozzi wanted more for their kids – more space, more neighborhood friends, and more diversity. So in 2004 they moved to Brownsburg, where they found everything they were looking for. In gratitude to a community that has been so good to their family, they looked for ways to give back.

Throughout their years in Hendricks County, they gave back in a variety of ways, and in 2019 they started a Family Legacy Fund at HCCF. Susan said. “We know that the Community Foundation has its fingers on the pulse of the needs in our community. We can’t know where all the needs are, but they do.”

2020 Grant Making

Jim Diagostino, Superintendent, Mill Creek Schools

In 2020, HCCF awarded total grants and scholarships of over $1.7 million through a variety of funds to organizations serving every corner of Hendricks County. We continued engaging our donors to match their passions to areas of need in the community and developed a Community Unity Program to lead the way in bringing our county together.

In March, HCCF pivoted immediately with its unrestricted funds as well as grant dollars from 22 other funds to respond to the pandemic, totaling $535,000 in grants in 2020.

Community Unity

IDEA Taskforce

HCCF's Community Leadership Grant application was accepted by Lilly Endowment Inc., and we received $200,000 in October 2020 to use to implement our plans for a more united Hendricks County!

With this grant, HCCF plans to address three critical issues: increased civic engagement, more collaboration and increased efficiency of services in Hendricks County, and a stronger sense of community pride. In addition, HCCF is committed to working towards greater community unity through increased Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, and Accessibility (IDEA).
