

Hendricks County Community Foundation Moonshot Grant Partner Lookbook

This HCCF Moonshot Grant Partner Lookbook was designed to connect potential partners for the HCCF Moonshot Grant.

This is not an exhaustive list of potential partners, nonprofits, or community resources; and, this list should not be considered a specific endorsement of any one organization over another. These are simply the organizations that chose to complete the HCCF Moonshot Partner Lookbook Profile.

The Lookbook is sorted first by Program Area followed by a complete directory of organizations.

If you are looking for a specific organization that is not listed OR for an organization serving a particular program area or population, please contact Eric Hessel, HCCF Vice President of Programs, at eric@hendrickscountycf.org for guidance.

You can find more information about the HCCF Moonshot Grant by visiting <https://hendrickscountycf.org/for-nonprofits/apply-for-a-grant/moonshot-grant.html> or scanning this QR Code:

We hope you find this resource valuable as you consider partners for this grant program.

Plainfield-Guilford Township Public Library

Website: www.plainfieldlibrary.net

Description: The Plainfield-Guilford Township Public Library (PGTPL) excels at acting as a dynamic, multi-functional community hub by blending extensive digital media platforms, traditional print collections, local historical archiving, public meeting spaces, dedicated space for youths, and an impressive nontraditional lending program. PGTPL brings a robust foundation of physical assets, hyper-local marketing channels, and community trust to any partnership. The library is a "one-stop shop" for community referrals, offering valuable leverage for local government, businesses, schools, and nonprofits. An organization would want to partner with the library to instantly gain built-in community trust, cost-free promotional channels, and access to physical infrastructure that would be expensive to secure independently.
