Hendricks County Community Foundation Announces Launch of New Website

The Hendricks County Community Foundation (HCCF) is proud to announce the launch of its newly redesigned website, hendrickscountycf.org. The refreshed online experience makes it easier than ever for the community to explore ways to give, apply for grants, and access local resources.

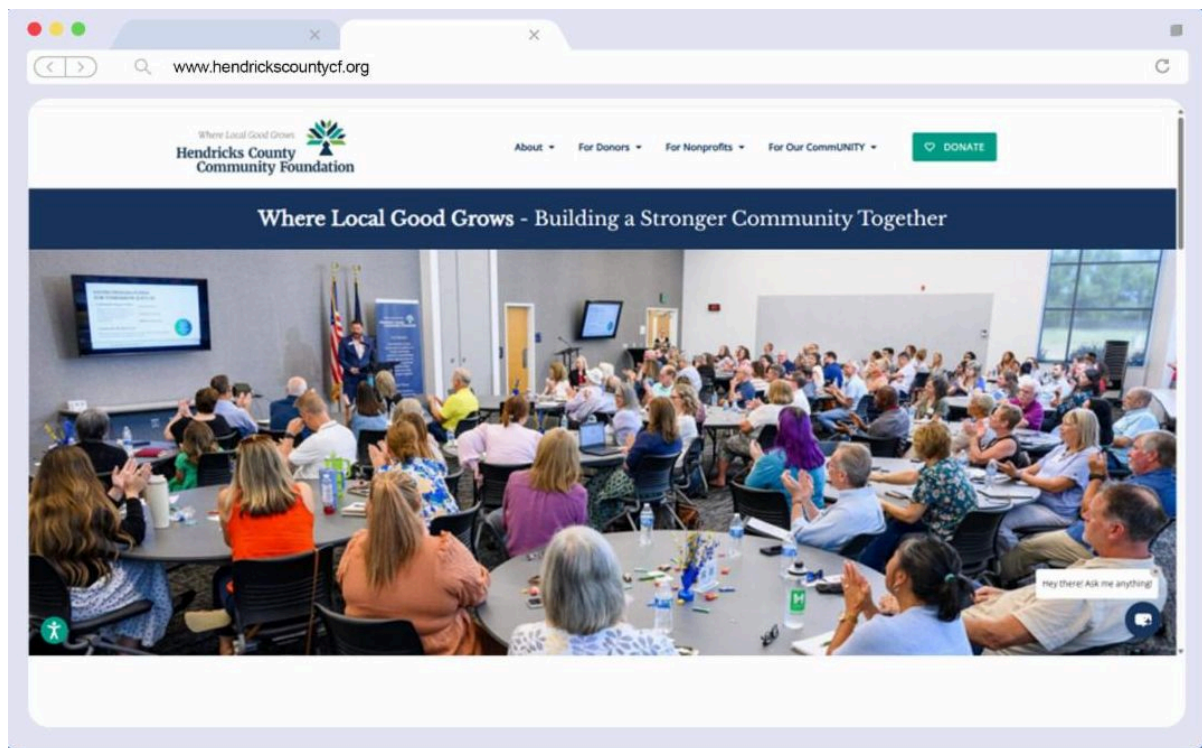

For supporters and donors, the site offers a straightforward pathway for starting a new fund or giving to existing community funds, and even planned giving options. Local nonprofit organizations have access to HCCF grant applications as well as educational and networking opportunities through the Nonprofit Learning Series.

Additionally, the website serves as a centralized hub for residents to access community resources and stay up to date on local initiatives. The site also highlights a dedicated Hendricks Community Calendar, offering a one-stop shop for residents and families to discover local events, gatherings, and volunteer opportunities across the county.

To ensure everyone in our community feels welcome, the new site also features enhanced accessibility options for the visually or hearing impaired. Visitors can also chat with the site's new AI assistant—a friendly, digital helper ready 24/7 to answer questions and help users find exactly what they're looking for in just a few clicks.

"We want every resident and organization to feel welcomed and supported the moment they visit our site," said Frances Mock, Director of Community Relations at HCCF. "Whether you are looking to give back or apply for a grant, this platform is built for you to see your impact, stay connected, and join the people making a difference across Hendricks County."

Visit hendrickscountycf.org to explore the new features of the HCCF site, learn about the latest grant programs, and sign up for the monthly e-newsletters.
